1. Please list the four groups that emerged in the US during the 1940s that communicated science to the public. +4

2. According to lecture, what do humans generally believe about how they should interact with the world/environment? What was described as one of the major origins of these beliefs? +2

3. What is an outcome of industrialization relative to our relationship with the environment? +1

4. Please describe the goals preservationists and conservationists relative to creating environmental regulations. +3

5. What was a major critique of naturalist writers? +1